10:00 am - 3:00 pm

Breckinridge Education Center

Fee: $10

Federal Period Everyday Dress Patterns with Joyce McDonald

Do you need a dress to wear to JPPM's War of 1812 Fair and Reenactment in September? Or during the Bicentennial of the War of 1812? Joyce McDonald, historic costume seamstress, will demonstrate how to create a period dress pattern based on her research using early 19th century garments. Participants will also learn how to cut a short gown and skirt appropriate for working class wardrobes. Workshop fee includes pattern muslin and instruction. For additional information and to register call 410-586-8501.

Workshop hosted by JPPM and the Southern Maryland Costumers.
